9.01 Discussion of Differences

The parties recognize that they have a common interest in resolving grievances. Such resolution is promoted through providing each other with background information and documentation directly related to the grievance so that informed discussion of the issue can take place at this level.

The Employer and the Union recognize that grievances may arise concerning:

- A) differences between the Parties respecting the interpretation, application, operation or any alleged violation of a provision of this Agreement, including a question as to whether or not a matter is subject to arbitration; or
- B) the dismissal, discipline or suspension of an employee bound by the Agreement.

The purpose of this Article is to provide the sole method for the settlement of a grievance alleging the violation of a specific provision of this Agreement. Such a grievance shall be presented and processed in accordance with the steps, time limits and conditions set forth herein.

Step 1

The employee, with or without a Shop Steward (at the employee's option), shall first discuss the grievance with his/her immediate supervisor or department head within seven (7) calendar days of the occurrence of the grievance. In this first step, both parties shall make every effort to settle the dispute. If the grievance is not settled at this step, then;

Step 2

The grievance shall be reduced to writing by:

- i) recording the grievance on the appropriate grievance form, setting out the nature of the grievance and the circumstances from which it arose;
- ii) stating the Article of the Agreement infringed upon or alleged to have been violated and the remedy or correction required;
- iii) the grievance shall be signed by the employee and a Shop Steward;
- iv) the supervisor shall acknowledge receipt of the written grievance by signing and dating the grievance form at the time the grievance is presented; and

- v) within seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the written grievance, the supervisor or the department head shall give his/her written reply. If the grievance is not settled at this step, then;

Step 3

The Union shall, within a further fourteen (14) calendar days of this notification, discuss the grievance with the representative designated by the Employer with the authority to handle grievances at Step 3 (who shall be outside the bargaining unit). Within a further seven (7) calendar days of the Step 3 meeting, the representative designated by the Employer shall respond in writing to the Union. Should the grievance be denied, written reasons for the denial shall be given. Failing settlement at this step, the grievance may be referred to an Industry Troubleshooter, Expedited Arbitrator or arbitration. The notice shall be delivered to the other party within ninety (90) days of the reply under Step 3.

9.02 Industry Troubleshooter

Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the dismissal, discipline, or suspension of an employee, or to the interpretation, application, operation, or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, during the term of the Collective Agreement, David McPhillips, Judi Korbin, Chris Sullivan, Ken Saunders or a substitute agreed to by the parties, shall at the request of either party:

- A) investigate the difference,
- B) define the issue in the difference, and
- C) make written recommendations to resolve the difference, within five (5) days of the date of receipt of the request, and for those five (5) days from that date, time does not run in respect of the grievance procedure.

In the event the parties are unable to agree on an Industry Troubleshooter within a period of thirty (30) days, either party may apply to the Minister of Labour for the Province of British Columbia to appoint such person.

Failing settlement at this step, the grievance may be referred to arbitration.

9.03 Union Representation

No Shop Steward or employee shall leave his/her work without obtaining the permission of his/her immediate supervisor. Employee-Shop Steward discussions shall take place where residents are not affected.

9.04 Grievance Investigations

Where an employee has asked to be represented by the Union in relations to the presentation of a grievance and a Shop Steward wishes to discuss the grievance with that employee, the employee and the Shop Steward shall, where operational requirements permit, be given reasonable time off without loss of pay for this purpose when the discussion takes place at the Employer's place of business. Employee-Shop Steward discussions shall take place where residents are not present.

Shop Stewards shall be permitted to represent an employee's interest without loss of pay when such meetings are scheduled during the Shop Steward's hours of work.

9.05 Policy Grievance

Where either party to this agreement disputes the general application, interpretation, or alleged violation of an Article to this agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the Employer, his/her designate and the Union within fourteen (14) calendar days of the occurrence. Where no satisfactory resolution is reached, either party within a further twenty-eight (28) calendar days may submit the dispute to arbitration as set out in Article 10 of this agreement.

9.06 Dismissal/Suspension for Alleged Cause

The following procedure shall be used for the resolution of disputes relating to the dismissal or suspension of an employee(s):

Within ten (10) calendar days of notice of the dismissal or suspension, the Employer shall notify the head office of the Union of such termination.

Within a further fourteen (14) days of receipt of notice in Step 1 of this Article, the Union may institute the grievance procedure at Step 3 of Article 9.01.

For the purposes of this provision, the “head office of the union” shall be BCNU LRO and union general fax number.

If the limit is not complied with, then the grievance shall be considered as being abandoned, unless the parties have mutually agreed, in writing, to extend the time limits.

The time limits contained in Article 9 are considered substantive and may only be extended or waived by written agreement of the parties. Any grievance which is not commenced or processed through the required stages is subject to a claim of abandonment and the parties agree that arbitrators should only relieve against a failure to follow time limits in an exceptional case.

ARTICLE 10 – ARBITRATION

10.01 Authority of the Arbitration Board

- A) Either party may refer any grievance, dispute or difference unresolved through the procedures in Article 9 to a single arbitrator by the party with carriage of the grievance. Such an arbitrator shall have the power to determine if any matter is arbitrable within the terms of the Agreement and to settle the question to be arbitrated.
- B) When a single arbitrator is used, the arbitrator shall issue a decision which shall be final and binding upon the parties and any affected employees.
- C) By mutual agreement, an Arbitration Board may be substituted for a single arbitrator. Where an Arbitration Board is used, the Arbitration Board shall issue a decision and the decision of the majority of such Board shall be final and binding upon the parties and any affected employees.

10.02 Notification

- A) The party requesting arbitration shall notify the other party of its intent to arbitrate.

- i) Single Arbitrator

- The recipient of this notice shall notify the other party of its selection for a single arbitrator. The other party shall respond within ten (10) calendar days. NUMBER OF CLASSIFICATIONS AT CPAC (LANGLEY GARDENS) INC. (Letter from Amanda List, Administrator)

Dear Ms. Kamal Ali:

RE: Number of Classifications at CPAC Langley Gardens

For the purposes of the collective agreement, we have indicated that there is presently one classification for nurses. If at any time, a new classification is established, the parties agree to negotiate a wage rate. Also, for the purposes of Layoff, Recall and Technological Change or any other clause that has a monetary implication, that if the employee is reassigned to a lower rated position, the employee will continue to be paid at her wage rate of the higher classification until the current wage rate of the lower classification equals or exceeds it.

Yours truly,

CPAC (Langley Gardens) Inc.

(“The Employer”)
AND
BRITISH COLUMBIA NURSES’ UNION

RE: BRITISH COLUMBIA GOVERNMENT WAGE LEVELLING

WHEREAS the Employer and Union are party to a Collective Agreement with an expiry date of March 31, 2021;

AND WHEREAS the Parties have entered into collective bargaining regarding the aforementioned expired Collective Agreement;

AND WHEREAS the Parties have engaged in discussions of proposals brought forward during collective bargaining;

AND WHEREAS the Parties have jointly identified that wage levelling implemented by the British Columbia Government during the term of the Collective Agreement has affected the Parties’ negotiations, the Parties hereby mutually agree as follows:

1. The Parties agree that should the Government of British Columbia (herein after BC GOVERNMENT) wage levelling be terminated by the British Columbia Government prior to the collective agreement expiry date, the Parties will re-open the collective agreement in order to negotiate wage rates for classifications that were adjusted subject to the BC GOVERNMENT wage levelling.
2. The Parties agree that such wage re-opener negotiations will commence within thirty (30) calendar days of any British Columbia Government announcement that terminates BC GOVERNMENT wage leveling. Timelines may be extended by mutual agreement by the parties.
3. No other article of the Collective Agreement will be subject to the wage re-opener discussions, unless mutually agreed to by the Parties.
4. Should the Parties not reach an agreement within thirty (30) calendar days following the commencement of the wage re-opener discussions identified in paragraphs 2 and 3 above, the matter in dispute shall be referred to Interest Arbitration. In such event, either party shall notify each other of such intent in writing. Should the parties be unable to agree on a mutually acceptable interest Arbitrator within fifteen (15) calendar days, one will be appointed by the Collective Agreement Arbitration Bureau (CAAB) at the request of either party.
