In the event the parties are unable to agree on an Industry Troubleshooter within a period of thirty (30) days either party may apply to the Minister of Labour for the Province of British Columbia to appoint such person.

Failing settlement at this step, the grievance may be referred to arbitration.

9.04 Amending Time Limits

If the time limits in Articles 9.02 and 9.05 are not complied with by the employee(s) or the Union, then the grievance shall be considered as being abandoned, unless the parties have mutually agreed, in writing, to extend the time limits.

CASUAL CALL-IN

Casual Register

- A) Part-time employees, who are registered for casual work, will be called first, in order of seniority.
- B) Casuals will be called, in order of seniority, following the part-time employees.
- C) Where there is a dispute regarding the allotment of casual shifts that will be worked three (3) days or more from the booking date, every effort shall be made to discuss the problem with the DOC/Designate with the intent to resolve the dispute. If resolution is not to both parties satisfaction, it will be handled via the grievance procedure, as with any other dispute regarding casual shifts.

Casual Employees

- A) Short call shifts (six [6] hours or less notice, including the first shift of a block), and call after 10 pm for the following day shift, will be filled at the discretion of the Employer.

Part-Time Employees

- A) A regular part-time employee will request, in writing to the manager, to be placed on the casual registry.
- B) If the regular part-time employee is already scheduled for work on the day of the casual vacancy the part-time employee is deemed unavailable for the casual shift. If acceptance of the casual shift will incur overtime for the part-time employee, the employee is deemed unavailable for that shift.
- C) Part-time employees joining the casual register shall be placed at the bottom of the list until the next update is completed per Article 12.02 – Seniority Lists, at which time they will be added in order of seniority.

Call-In Process

A log book will be kept of all calls made for casual call-in. The log book shall show:

- i) the date
- ii) employee called
- iii) time called
- iv) the position/shift being called to fill

- v) the outcome of the call (accept, decline, no answer, answering machine, message left)
- vi) signature of caller

- A) All staff on the casual registry will provide one phone number in which to be contacted for casual shifts.
- B) If no answer after six (6) rings, the caller shall make note in the log book and move to the next available employee on the casual register. If an answering machine is reached or person is available to take a message, the caller shall leave a message saying "Maple Ridge Seniors Village calling, please call regarding an available shift" and note "message left" in the log book. The caller will then proceed down the list.
- C) If an employee returns a call from message left and the shift remains unfilled, offer it. If the shift vacancy has been filled, advise the employee that the shift is no longer available.
- D) An employee who is registered for casual work, and is working in the building, shall designate, in the place assigned by the Employer, the number of the facility mobile phone they are carrying. This shall be the contact number during that shift for the offer of casual work. If the employee fails to designate, or errors in the designation of, the mobile phone number, they will not be called for the casual work.
- E) Part-time and casual employees who are registered for casual work will submit their availability by the 15th of the month for the following month. Anyone who does not submit their availability may not be called in for casual work for that month.
- F) Part-time and casual employees who accept shifts have the same obligation to report to work as regular employees and shall be deemed responsible for that shift, except where there is a bona fide reason to cancel the shift.
- G) Casual employees' preferences for specific shifts or areas of work will not be accommodated at the expense of regular employees' schedules or areas of work. Casual employees will be expected to work in any area they are assigned to or moved to during a shift unless they do not have the requisite skills or orientation required to practice in that area.
- H) Casual Employee Three Month Availability Check In
When calls are made by the Employer for casual employees to report to work, the acceptance of such work shall be at the employee's discretion. Where a casual employee has not accepted such work for a period longer than three (3) months, the casual employee will be deleted from the casual call-in list and provided a letter including this clause. Where the employee believes they have an acceptable reason for not accepting offered work, the Employer and the Union shall meet to discuss the reason and the continued employment of the employee.
