- 2.02 To regulate relations in British Columbia between the Members and employers through collective bargaining.
- 2.03 To participate in the Nurses' Bargaining Association (NBA) to negotiate a Provincial Collective Agreement (PCA) for the constituent unions.
- 2.04 To negotiate collective agreements for Members at non-NBA bargaining units.
- 2.05 To build relationships with government, employers, and interested parties.
- 2.06 To champion the social determinants of health and the highest standards of safe health care for all.

- 2.07 To promote human rights and equity and strive to eliminate barriers to Members' involvement and inclusion in BCNU activities.
- 2.08 To offer professional development, financial, and other service programs for Members.
- 2.09 To promote and participate in health and benefit plans for Members.
- 2.10 To promote Members' knowledge in matters related to their professional, social, and economic welfare through education and research.
- 2.11 To encourage unity within the nursing profession and other allied fields through communication and cooperation.
- 2.12 To advance the professional profile of nursing.

ARTICLE 3 AMENDMENTS

- 3.01 Amendments to this Constitution shall be conducted in accordance with Article 6 of the Bylaws.

BCNU BYLAWS

ARTICLE 1 MEMBERSHIP

Rights and Conditions of Membership

1.01 Eligibility for membership:

- (a) All nurses and allied personnel who are eligible to engage in collective bargaining are eligible for BCNU membership.
- (b) Allied personnel require a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of Council to be admitted to membership.

1.02 Members will:

- (a) Sign a membership application;
- (b) Abide by the Constitution and Bylaws;
- (c) Abide by the Policies and Procedures; and
- (d) Pay any dues or levies as per Article 9.

1.03 Members may (subject to any restrictions under Articles 1.04, 1.05, 1.10, 1.11, 1.12, 1.13, 1.14, or 12):

- (a) Attend Meetings;
- (b) Hold an Elected Position; and
- (c) Receive the benefits of BCNU membership.

1.04 A Member who is employed by any other NBA union, is not entitled to:

- (a) Attend Meetings;
- (b) Hold an Elected Position; or
- (c) Fill a temporary or permanent BCNU Staff position.

1.05 A person ceases to be a Member when there is a:

- (a) Suspension or termination of membership pursuant to Article 12; or
- (b) Failure to pay dues or levies to the BCNU, unless an extension has been granted by the Provincial Executive Committee.

1.06 A Member who obtains an employer granted unpaid leave of absence will remain a Member and will pay no dues or levies during the leave.

1.07 While on leave from their employer and employed by the BCNU, Members will not pay dues or levies. The BCNU President will continue to pay BCNU dues and levies during their term.

1.08 A Member who is laid off by an employer will remain a Member and will not pay dues or levies for the period of the layoff unless in receipt of wages as a Member exercising their collective agreement rights.

1.09 A Member who is suspended or terminated by an employer and is exercising their rights under the grievance/arbitration process or other rights appeal language in the appropriate collective agreement will remain a Member and will not pay dues or levies until the grievance, arbitration or appeal is resolved.

Member in Good Standing

1.10 Despite the requirements of Article 12, Council, in its sole discretion, may declare, by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of Council, that a Member has ceased to be a Member in Good Standing if Council determines that:

- (a) The Member has breached their duty under this Constitution and Bylaws or the Policies and Procedures; and
- (b) For reasons of expediency or otherwise, the requirements of Article 12 cannot reasonably be met at the time of the declaration.

1.11 A Member who has ceased to be a Member in Good Standing is not entitled to:

- (a) Attend Meetings; or
- (b) Stand for election or hold an Elected Position.

1.12 Within thirty (30) days of notification of a declaration under Article 1.10, a Member declared no longer a Member in Good Standing may apply to the Chief Executive Officer or designate to request that the Discipline Committee establish a Hearing Board in accordance with Article 12.06 to hear the merits of Council's declaration as if it were a Complaint by Council:

- (a) The Hearing Board may, in addition to its powers and discretion set out in Article 12.07:
 - i. Uphold or set aside Council's declaration; and
 - ii. In the event that the Member is guilty of a breach of duty, impose any penalty that it considers appropriate in the circumstances.
 - iii. All decisions and determinations of the Hearing Board regarding Article 1.12 are within the Hearing Board's sole discretion and will be final and binding.
- (b) Subject to Article 1.10 and this Article, the rights and procedures required under Article 12 and any applicable Policies and Procedures will apply.

Affiliate and Student Membership

1.13 Council may create an affiliated class of membership, with criteria, rights, and fees to be outlined in the Policies and Procedures.

1.14 Council may create a student class of membership, with criteria, rights, and fees outlined in the Policies and Procedures.

- (a) Employed student members hold the rights and benefits of membership while paying dues for the duration of their employment contract.

- 11.02 All Members are expected to comply with the Policies and Procedures as approved by Council.
- 11.03 The Policies and Procedures are to be interpreted in a manner consistent with the Constitution and Bylaws. In the case of a conflict, the Constitution and Bylaws supersedes the Policies and Procedures.

ARTICLE 12 DISCIPLINE

- 12.01 Preamble:

- (a) Members are expected to fulfill certain responsibilities and obligations, including but not limited to, complying with the Constitution and Bylaws and the Policies and Procedures. Improper conduct by Members can result in damage to the integrity and reputation of the BCNU and can create conflict and discord amongst the membership. Conduct that constitutes a breach of duty by Members may be subject to discipline.
- (b) The BCNU is committed to providing an environment characterized by open and clear communication, honesty, procedural fairness, transparency, neutrality, and mutual respect. The BCNU provides Members with the process and rights outlined in the Constitution and Bylaws and the Policies and Procedures so that Complaints are handled fairly, expeditiously, and affordably.
- (c) The BCNU is committed to assisting Members to resolve Complaints through alternative dispute resolution, where appropriate.
- (d) It is the intention of this Article to encourage the development of mutual respect between Members. To this end it is important that Members exercise their rights responsibly and with respect for others, and so contribute to the orderly running of the organization.

- 12.02 Discipline Restricted:

- (a) The BCNU will not impose any discipline pursuant to this Article except for a breach of duty under the Constitution and Bylaws or the Policies and Procedures.
- (b) Every Member subject to discipline pursuant to this Article is entitled to a fair hearing in accordance with the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness.

- 12.03 Breach of Duty:

- (a) A Member commits a breach of duty where they:
 - i. Violate any provision of the Constitution and Bylaws or the Policies and Procedures;
 - ii. Act in any manner that constitutes a breach of duty as outlined in the Policies and Procedures; or
 - iii. Act in any manner which jeopardizes the advancement of the purposes or welfare of the BCNU or that could discredit the reputation or integrity of the BCNU or harm its membership.

- 12.04 Complaints:

- (a) Any Member may make a Complaint against another Member for an alleged breach of duty as defined in Article 12.03.
- (b) A Complaint must be sent in writing by the Complainant to the Chief Executive Officer using the Complaint Form (adopted as such by Council) within sixty (60) days after the Complainant knows of or can reasonably be expected to know of the events upon which the Complaint is based.
- (c) Within fourteen (14) days of receiving a Complaint, the Chief Executive Officer, or designate, will provide the Respondent with the particulars of the Complaint in person or by registered mail to the address shown in the register of Members.
- (d) The Chief Executive Officer, or designate, will consider the merits of the Complaint, for the purpose of determining, in their sole discretion, whether it is appropriate to initiate an early alternative dispute resolution process such as mediation, mediation-arbitration, expedited arbitration, or full arbitration.
- (e) The initiation of mediation, mediation-arbitration, expedited arbitration, or full arbitration will be conducted in accordance with the Policies and Procedures.
- (f) All decisions of the Chief Executive Officer, or designate, to initiate or not initiate the early alternative dispute resolution process will be final and binding.
- (g) Where a matter is determined to be suitable for an early alternative dispute resolution process, the Chief Executive Officer, or designate, will appoint a Neutral Third Party to assist the parties in resolving the dispute.
- (h) If the Neutral Third Party determines that attempts at consensual resolution have been unsuccessful, they will advise the Chief Executive Officer, or designate, and the Chief Executive Officer, or designate, at its sole discretion will refer the matter to either:

- i. arbitration with the same Neutral Third Party; or
 - ii. the Complaints Investigation Committee under Article 12.05.
- (i) The Chief Executive Officer, or designate, may also consider whether the information set out in the Complaint form discloses a potential breach of duty by the Respondent(s).
- i. If, upon considering the information set out in the Complaint form, the Chief Executive Officer, or designate, determines that the Complaint form does not disclose a breach of duty by the Respondent(s), the Complaint may be dismissed.
 - ii. The Complainant(s) may appeal a decision to dismiss the Complaint, in which case the Complaint will be referred to the Complaints Investigation Committee.

12.05 Complaints Investigation Committee and Complaints Investigation Sub-Committee:

- (a) There will be a standing Complaints Investigation Committee comprised of the Vice-President, and one (1) Member elected from each region.
- (b) The investigation and referral of Complaints will be conducted in accordance with the Policies and Procedures.
